Mouchake Dhil Magazine Mouchake Dhil (magazine) is a monthly magazine based in Bangladesh. Its focus is teaching English to the broader population of Bangladesh through print and electronic media. Of late, internet has been used as a medium in addition to print. In 2006, the magazine was launched as an addition to its print editions in English and Bengali. .Q: CakePHP 3: Ajax calls after user has logged in I have my CakePHP application working on CakePHP 2.x. But I have a problem now, when I try to run it on cakephp3. I have a contact form that has two fields: message, an email. This form is used to contact the user and is embedded in every page. When I'm logged out the mail is send correctly. But when I've logged in and checked the mail, it isn't sent anymore. It comes back to the homepage. This is the way how I'm doing the email sending: My controller: class FormsController extends ApplicationController { public $helpers = array('Html', 'Form', 'Session'); public function beforeFilter(Event $event) { $this->Auth->allow(['contact']);
