I'm using mongodb for the data storage and mongoose for querying. I haven't done any of the route stuff yet. I'm just trying to do the simple query. I think I've connected and set up everything correctly and I believe I should be getting data back from my query, but I just can't seem to get it. Here is my schema: const dateSchema = mongoose.Schema({ _id: { type: String, required: true, }, name: { type: String, required: true, }, email: { type: String, required: true, }, msg: { type: String, required: true, }, }, { collection: 'newsletters' }); And I'm just trying to get my database to return the news letters that have _id of 'hello' Here is the server.js file: var mongoose = require('mongoose'); mongoose.connect('mongodb://localhost/mydb'); var router = require('./routes'); var newsletterSchema = require('./schema/newsletters.js'); var Newsletter = mongoose.model('newsletter', newsletterSchema); module.exports = function(app) {
